Testimonials

You have been one of our most popular speakers! The feedback from our participants was exceptional and everyone wants you back again as the keynote speaker. (Booked twice!)

-Women's Leadership Conference

Kelli is truly a fantastic speaker, and even through a computer screen, she radiates warmth and compassion. Kelli led thoughtful discussions, offered powerful advice, and created an inviting space for attendees to practice vulnerability. I'm still blown away by how engaged my colleagues were throughout the entire presentation!

-National Insurance Company

Kelli was so easy to work with and really listened to our pre-conference prep with her. The team loved what she had to offer, and most importantly, found her credible and understanding of our industry (which is critically important and often missed).
